GIRL WOMEN.

The general standard of measurement for womanhood is "grown-up-ness." When a girl is emancipated from school and arrives at the dignity of trailing skirts and elaborate hair dressing she is looked upon as a young woman. But nature knows nothing of such standards. When the womanly function is established, womanhood is attained according to her standards, and there is no need of womanly care and caution. It is girlish ignorance or neglect at this critical time which often results in long years of after misery.

Mothers who perceive the evidences of functional derangement in young girls should promptly have them begin the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It establishes regularity, tranquilizes the nerves and tones up the whole system.

"My troubles started during my girlhood," writes Miss Flora J. Greer, of 107 Howe Street, Akron, O., "but did not prove serious until 1900. From that time I did not see a well day. I suffered at every monthly period with terrible headache, irritation of the spine and pains in my back. I had soreness through my hips and ovaries all the time and constant backache. One doctor would tell me one thing and another would say something altogether different, but they only relieved me for a few days. I had not had a single symptom of my old trouble so far. Can sleep good, work hard, and eat solid and substantial food without distress."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cleanse the bowels and stimulate the sluggish liver.

CATARRH

Nothing but a local remedy or change of climate will cure Catarrh. The specific is Ely's Cream Balm.

It is quickly absorbed. Gives relief at once. Opens and cleanses the nasal passages. Alleviates inflammation. Restores the sense of taste and smell. No mercury. No injurious drugs. Regular size, 50 cents; Family Size, $1.00 at Druggists, or by mail.

FOR OVER FIFTY YEARS. AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhea. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

Many physicians are now prescribing Kodol Dyspepsia Cure regularly having found that it is the best prescription they can write because it is the one preparation which contains the elements necessary to digest not only some kind of food but all kinds and it therefore cures indigestion and dyspepsia no matter what its cause. For sale by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

SAVED BY MONGOOSE.

Mr. Jacob Newman passed through the city last night on his way to St. Louis to visit his parents. Mr. Newman is just from India, where he has been engaged in engineering work, and he talks entertainingly. Among his stories he related an exciting adventure with a cobra:

"We had just finished a hard day's work and were preparing to take a good night's sleep. We were far from a village, on some hills, and took shelter in a deserted hut. We did not reach the hut until after midnight, and consequently we slept late into the next day. The first thing I remember upon opening my eyes was a flood of light through the door. I was nearest, and my two companions were behind me. On a second glance my blood almost froze. There on the floor of the hut and less than two feet from me was a large cobra, the largest I have ever seen. It was coiled to strike, and its venomous neck swelled with poison. The little eyes glittered like emeralds. I never moved a limb, but gazed at it in horror. My perfect stillness probably saved my life; for if I had made a move the snake would have struck. As it was, it seemed to be enjoying the triumph, and slowly moved its head backward and forward. I dared not utter a sound, so I knew that it would seal my fate. I was just resolving in my mind what to do, and had determined to make a quick leap, when there was a rush from a corner. A small animal about the size of a cat darted out from behind the snake, and like a flash seized it by the neck just above the hood. And then commenced the fiercest struggle I have ever witnessed. The snake plunged, writhed and twisted, but the little animal clung to it. At length its struggles grew weaker and I was enabled to dispatch it with a stick. The little animal was a mongoose, the famous Indian cobra fighter. As soon as the snake was dead it fled to its hiding place and we could not coax it out. If ever I felt grateful to man or beast it was to the little mongoose that saved my life."—[Louisville Courier-Journal.]
